CALL FOR PAPERS

It is our great pleasure to invite you to the 1st International Conference “Modern Aspirations”, and we would be honoured if you contributed to its success by sharing your research finding. The goal of the conference is to develop scientific and professional activities, as well as to promote the role of science in creating socially responsible and sustainable communities.

It is our aim to provide a platform to exchange knowledge, encourage multidisciplinary discussions, address modern world challenges, and establish networking and collaboration among conference participants.

The conference will be organized by Aspira University of Applied Sciences, on 14 March, in Split, Croatia. The main conference topics are focused on four different modules:

1. Tourism, economy and entrepreneurship
2. Information and communication technologies
3. Sports and sports management
4. Education and communication

The abstract submission deadline is 20 January. The notice on the acceptance will be sent by 5 February. Please send your abstracts to: conference@aspira.hr

There are two conference languages – English and Croatian, and the participants can choose to present your research and write your paper in either of them. Abstracts should contain between 350 and 400 words.

The abstract should include:

Name of the author(s)

Affiliation (for each author if there are more than one)

Contact email (for each author if there are more than one)

Title of the presentation

Abstract (300-450 words)

Key words (up to five)

References (not compulsory, maximally up to 4)

All the other information is available at the conference website.

We look forward to the presentations of your current research findings in the welcoming atmosphere of the City of Split. In addition to the conference, you will have the opportunity to experience beautiful history and setting of the City of Split, as well as to indulge in Croatian cuisine.
